

BUP Teachers' Course, workshop in Lviv, Ukraine in March 2020.

BUP Teachers' Course 2022–2023

Education for Sustainable Development in Higher Education

The focus of the course is to improve the implementation of Agenda 2030 in the learning methods in Higher Education. The participants will get tools how to integrate the UN Sustainable Development Goals into their own teaching and study programs in a hands-on way.

The emphasis is primarily to strengthen goal #4 – Quality education, but also the other SDG's can come into question.

Target group:

Educators, teachers, and researchers in Higher Education within the Baltic University Programme. The course is free of charge for teachers from the BUP Participating universities. Applicants from outside the BUP are also welcome.

Application deadline: 18.8.2022.

Date: September 2022–March 2023.

Program:

- Online material, exercises and discussions in groups
- Two workshops:
  - 11–13.10 2022 at Tallinn University, Estonia
  - February/March 2023 (time and place to be decided during the first workshop)
- Preparation and presentation of an individual project

For more information and application, please see:

<http://bup.fi/bup-teachers-course>

